CUSTOMER PROPRIETARY NETWORK INFORMATION ("CPNI") PROCEDURES

The operating procedures of Revolution Communications Company, LTD are designed to ensure compliance with the CPNI rules applicable to telecommunications carriers. These procedures are designed to meet Revolution's duty to protect CPNI from any disclosure or use that is not permitted by the rules of the Federal Communications Commission.

- A. All disclosures or uses of Customer Proprietary Network Information ("CPNI") are to be approved by the customer except for valid law enforcement requests. Lacking customer approval, any request to utilize CPNI requires approval of the Manager to determine validity.
- B. All disclosures of CPNI for law enforcement will be listed in the CPNI notebook/file along with backup documentation maintained by the designee of the Manager. Revolution does not disclose CPNI to third parties to be used for marketing purposes.
- C. All outbound marketing request campaigns need to be approved by the Manager. Such approval will require use of lists of customers showing the opt-in or opt-out approvals including history of notices to customers.
- D. In instances of Opt-out mechanisms that do not work properly, the Manager, and/or CFO are required to notify the FCC within five (5) business days in writing. The notice shall be in the form of a letter, and shall include the carrier's name, a description of the opt-out mechanism(s) used, the problem(s) experienced, the remedy proposed and when it will be/was implemented, whether the relevant state commission(s) has been notified and whether the state commission(s) has taken any action, a copy of the notice provided to customers, and contact information. Such notice must be submitted even if the carrier offers other methods by which customers may opt-out.
- E. Employees will be educated on the company's policy not to improperly disclose or use CPNI.
- F. A corporate officer acting as agent for the Company will certify on an annual basis stating that the officer has personal knowledge that the Company has established the above operating procedures and that these procedures are adequate to ensure compliance with applicable CPNI rules.
